forget you and my dear little children Teach them to pray for me I have a long walk today I have been to central Park today It is a place of gayety of every kind I amused myself in looking at the wild Beast there is a large Menagerie there putting up at Hotels is strange to me I assure you I have got my passage secured with three more I expect the other Brethren in to morrow morning at the same time as I arrived here this Morning they knew we was coming and had our monies
 at the Union Office

it was telegraphed to them from President Taylor's office in Salt Lake City at 9 o'clock - I wish it was to morrow morning if the other brethren was here & the ship was ready to start for New York is a tiresome place without you had plenty of money But things are a wonderful deal cheaper than they are in Salt Lake such a big railroad over your head and every way I had a ride on the railroad over the streets to Central Park & back the style is really wonderful here no end to it the buildings are enormous I forgot to tell you we sail
