

Funeral Services Held Monday at Tabernacle For Catherine Pace

Funeral services were conducted at the Bountiful tabernacle Monday noon for Mrs. Catherine Pace, 83, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Eldredge, with whom she had been living for the past year or two.

Funeral services were conducted under the direction of Bishop Preston Hughes of the Bountiful Sixth ward.

High tribute was paid to her as keeping a wonderful home and outside garden, and to her ability to make one feel comfortable in her presence. She also possessed the genuine spirit of friendliness.

The following took part in the services: prayer at the mortuary by Angus Smedley; opening prayer at service, John Call; Emily Holbrook, accompanied by Lorene Haacke, sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Remarks, Bishop Hughes; organ solo, "O My Father," Frank W. Asper. Remarks, J. A. Taylor; John Parrish, accompanied by Frank Asper, sang "Jesus Savior, Pilot Me." Remarks, Charles R. Mabey. John Parrish sang "The Lord's Prayer." Closing prayer, J. Glen Minson. Prelude and postlude music, Lorene Haacke.

Dedication of grave was by Brigham H. Holbrook in the Wasatch Lawn Memorial Park, where her husband and some of her children are buried.
