

Thomas Rampton Buried Saturday

Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon for Thomas Rampton of Garland, who died Wednesday at his home. Lee Thompson of the Garland Second Ward bishopric conducted the service.

Ethel Forsberg played the prelude and postlude, Bishop Arthur Michaelis offered the invocation and the opening song was a duet, "Beyond the Sunset", by Lulu Johnson and Jessie Miller.

Other musical numbers given, were a duet by Ethel Forsberg and Clifford Hansen titled, "I Know that My Redeemer Lives", a trio with Ethel Forsberg, Elizabeth Manning and Faye Gleason sang, "In The Garden", and Fred Nye sang the closing number, "Goin Home".

Speakers were William Cullimore, Lyman Thorpe, C. E. Smith, Antone R. Ivins, of the First Council of Seventy of Salt Lake City, and Mr. Thompson.

A. R. Capener gave the benediction.

Burial was in the Garland Cemetery by Rogers Mortuary and the grave was dedicated by Malcolm Rampton.